

GRACE LANDSCAPES LIMITED

ISO 14001:2004 Environmental
Management System

ENVIRONMENTAL OBJECTIVES & TARGETS

14001 Ref: 4.3.3

Date: 12th Aug 2015

Page 1 of 1

NO.	POLICY	CURRENT STATUS	ENVIRONMENTAL OBJECTIVES	TARGET(S) TO BE ACHIEVED BY/WHEN	ACTIONS WE NEED TO TAKE TO ACHIEVE OUR TARGETS	RESPONSIBLE FOR ACHIEVING THE TARGET(S)
1.	Reduce the impact that the business has on the environment that includes reducing pollution	During 2014 at head office we disposed of 5 no 12yd skips of general waste 60 cubic yards	Reduce the waste produced at head office	To reduce the number of general waste skips year on year to a maximum of 10 no 12yd skips	Segregation of waste to increase recycling	Andrew Williams
2.	Reduce the impact that the business has on the environment that includes reducing pollution	During 2014 we used 806cubic meters of potable water target was 1800 cubic metres	To stabilise the amount of potable water used	Maintain potable water usage below 1500 cubic metres for year 2015.	Harvesting grey water	Martin Harrison
3.	Reduce the impact that the business has on the environment that includes reducing pollution	During the year 2014 we used 33598 electricity units	To stabilise the number of electricity units used	Reduce electricity usage below a maximum 36,000 units for year 2015	Use of PIR systems, energy savings light bulbs, turning off lights, changes to electricity appliance.	Martin Harrison
4.	Reduce the impact that the business has on the environment that includes reducing pollution	Some vehicles currently do not have the latest environmentally friendly engines	To reduce vehicle emissions	To change company vehicles in line with the latest environmentally friendly engines by 2018	Budget for spending on replacement vehicles	Hugh Pawsey